

ADVANCES OF THE PROJECT OF CHRISTIAN SOLIDARITY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF RECONCILIATION AND NATIONAL UNITY

Introduction

Private Secretariat for National Policies (SPPN)
Presidency of the Republic
Republic of Nicaragua

Managua, September 2020

Institutional Advances

1. Sovereignty, Independence, Self-determination

2. Peace, Stability, Citizen's Security

3. Democracy, Inclusion, Equity, Participation

Programmatic Advances

- First Section: Restitution of Basic Rights

I. Restitution of the right to universal and free health care

II. Restitution of the right to universal and free education

III. Strategies for the reduction of poverty and inequality

Programmatic Advances

- Second Section: Restitution of Rights and empowerment of historically discriminated sectors

IV. A New Economy for a New Society

V. Restitution of rights and empowerment of Women

VI. Restitution of rights and empowerment of Youth

VII. Restitution of the right of Indigenous and Afro-descendants Peoples to build their own development

VIII. Caribbean Coast: historical connectivity with the entire country and participation in all programs

Programmatic Advances

- Third Section: Restitution of Rights and Well-being of Families

IX. The restitution of the right to basic services as public goods for well-being and human development

X. The prominence of Local Families and Communities: Municipalities and Local Development

XI. The restitution of the right to live in a healthy environment and the fight against Global Climate Change in terms of Mitigation, Adaptation, Losses and damage

XII. The restitution of the right to live in a safe and peaceful Nicaragua

Programmatic Advances

- Fourth Section: National Economy and Foreign and Trade Relations with all the countries of the world

XIII. Open and stable macroeconomic policy

XIV. Foreign policy worthy of Sovereignty, Independence, Self-determination and Central American, Caribbean and Latin American Integration

XV. Business relations with the whole world